Hello All,

Scurry County Appraisal District passed the 2022 Property Value Study. We achieved local value for all three school districts. You may review the results using the link below to the Property Value Study webpage.

SDPVS

The 2022 Preliminary findings of 733 school districts resulted in:
61.80% or 453 school districts achieving Valid Findings (Local Value being assigned with no need to appeal).
11.05% or 81 school districts receiving Invalid Findings for the first year resulting in Grace Year 1
5.87% or 43 school districts receiving Invalid Findings for the second year resulting in Grace Year 2
20.60% or 151 school districts receiving Invalid Findings for the third year resulting in State Value (school subject to possible state funding loss)
.68% or 5 schools districts receiving Invalid Findings having higher value than the state property value study. (In excess of 105%)

We are currently in the process of the PTAD MAP Review for 2023. More information will follow as the February 14 Scurry CAD Board of Directors meeting approaches.

Thank you for your support of the appraisal district,

Texas Comptroller of Public Accounts

Dear Superintendents:

Our office certified the 2022 School District Property Value Study (SDPVS) preliminary findings to the commissioner of education on Jan. 31, 2023, and published them on our SDPVS webpage.

As a reminder, March 13, 2023, is the deadline for school districts or eligible taxpayers to file petitions protesting the preliminary findings. The required forms and published instructions are available at the links below.

For the 2022 SDPVS, we updated the distribution method for the SDPVS preliminary findings to consolidate several related emails into one. All individual school district information is available to download on our SDPVS webpages and statewide information is linked below.

- 2022 SDPVS Preliminary spreadsheets available for download:
  - Preliminary Confidence Interval Detail Report (MOE)
